This document refers to the NewsCodes Change Mangement Guidelines document, version 6 (follow the link)

Reuters requests to change this guideline:

“Each term requested should be in lower case, in the singular unless it is a plural noun and in British English.” (See: 2.1.6 and 3.1.5)

to:

Each new term requested should be in Title case, in the singular unless it is a plural noun and in British English.

(Title case is here defined as follows: All words start with a capital letter and continue with lower case letter(s), except for words such as "and", "the", "an", which use lower case throughout.)
